OCHN leader named Crain’s Notable Black Business Leader

OAKLAND COUNTY, MI (September 9, 2024) – Crain’s Detroit Business has acknowledged Dana Lasenby, Oakland Community Health Network’s Executive Director and CEO as one among the “2024 Crain’s Notable Black Business Leaders.” Crain’s Detroit Business is a weekly publication, both online and in print that provides unique coverage of news, articles, and information for industry leaders in the private and public sector.

Crain’s Notable Black Business Leaders are influential, innovative, bold, and strategic. They are barrier-breaking executives, entrepreneurs, civic and corporate leaders in many fields including finance, technology, health care, hospitality, law, the arts and community service.

Individuals named for this distinctive award were selected based on their career accomplishments, track records of success, and impact on the community.

About OCHN

OCHN is contracted by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services to lead a provider service network that assists approximately 29,000 Oakland County citizens at more than 400 service sites across the county. People who receive public behavioral health services through OCHN's provider network include those who have an intellectual or developmental disability, mental health concerns, or substance use disorder. Most of these individuals have Medicaid insurance coverage.

OCHN's goal is to ensure these individuals are aware of and have access to services and supports that will improve their health and quality of life, as well as ensure their engagement in full community participation. Its mission to “inspire hope, empower people, and strengthen communities” reflects an unyielding belief in a “Valuable System for Valued People.” Programs and supports provided by OCHN's service network are available at www.oaklandchn.org.
