OCHN's Chief Medical Officer named Crain's Notable Leader in Behavioral Health Honoree

OAKLAND COUNTY, MI (October 21, 2024) – Crain's Detroit Business has acknowledged Vasilis Pozios, M.D., Chief Medical Officer at Oakland Community Health Network (OCHN) as a 2024 Crain's Notable Leaders in Behavioral Health Honoree. Crain's Detroit Business is a weekly publication, both online and in print that provides unique coverage of news, articles, and information for industry leaders in the private and public sector.

Crain's Notable Leaders in Health Care were nominated by their peers, colleagues, friends and family and selected by a team of Crain's Detroit Business editors based on their career accomplishments, track records of success and impact.

Nineteen Southeast Michigan health care professionals were honored for dedicating their lives to improving patient care for all ages, incomes and locales. They advance medical research, enhance quality of care and shape the future of health care. These notable leaders range from physicians and surgeons to strategic administrators who have made a profound impact in their organizations, on their communities and in their fields. ### About OCHN

OCHN is contracted by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) to lead a provider service network and manage care for approximately 29,000 Oakland County residents at more than 400 service sites across the county. People who receive public behavioral health services through OCHN's provider network include those who have an intellectual or developmental disability, mental health concerns, or substance use disorder. Most of these individuals have Medicaid insurance coverage.

OCHN's goal is to ensure these individuals are aware of and have access to services and supports that will improve their health and quality of life, as well as ensure their engagement in full community participation. Its mission to "inspire hope, empower people, and strengthen communities" reflects an unyielding belief in a "Valuable System for Valued People." Programs and supports provided by OCHN's service network are available at www.oaklandchn.org.
