

RECIPIENT RIGHTS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

What is the Recipient Rights Advisory Committee (RRAC)?

The RRAC helps protect the rights of people who receive services in Oakland County, MI.

The committee is dedicated to ensuring that services are fair, respectful, and safe for everyone. Our members include individuals receiving services, family and community representatives, and members at large. We meet regularly to review concerns, share ideas, and work together to strengthen the system—so every person is treated with dignity and supported in the best possible way

If you care about the rights of persons served by OCHN, we encourage you to apply to become a member of the RRAC.

All meetings are open to the public.
