OAKLAND COMMUNITY HEALTH NETWORK

OAKLAND COUNTY'S PUBLIC BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SYSTEM

OCHN Crisis Services

We're here to serve you — and walk alongside you during a crisis

At Oakland Community Health Network (OCHN), we know that going through a crisis can feel overwhelming. You are not alone. Our Crisis Services are here to help you feel supported, understood, and cared for. We meet you where you are and help you figure out what to do next.

OCHN Crisis Line:

888-238-0611

OCHN Resource & Crisis Center
1200 N. Telegraph Road, Building 32E Pontiac, MI 48341
24 hours a day, 7 days a week

When you come to the OCHN Resource & Crisis Center, you can expect:

- A safe and welcoming place
- Caring staff who listen and do not judge
- A simple assessment focused on your needs
- Help learning about next steps and support options
- Clear guidance on follow-up care

If you or someone you love is going through a crisis,
we are here to help — today, tomorrow, and beyond.

5505 Corporate Drive
Troy, MI 48098

Oakland Community Health Network
Developmental Disabilities • Mental Health • Substance Recovery

248-858-1210
www.oaklandchn.org